My dearest Mother,

Just lister, 32 letters in one bunch this afternoon so I felt the inexpressable joy of a child, when receiving a long wished for, toy, Mother, I feel over jubilant and my very being is exhilarated with a peculiar pleasure of satisfaction. 9 letters were from you, Mother, you are the greatest mother in all the world. I love you more than any one else in this wide world. It will be a great moment when I greet you again at home.

I admire your views on keeping going for me and not worrying because worrying does not help you or me either.

Most of your letters were written in June. Four were written in July. (2nd 4th 10th = 18th.) All were full of good motherly love and nurs around home.

God has been good to me over here and I have lacked nothing in the way of health and happiness. We are happy because we can be here.
The war is leaning heavily on the right side and looks extremely good for the allies. Much better than any time since it began.

Other mail was from the following; Mr. W. F. Wildberger, Mrs. Frierson, Ruth, Bessie McWilliams, Hamblett, Jennie T. B. Ott, Bransford Clarke, Miss Polly Myers, "Pete" Lavender and Aunt Mattie.
So you see all were wonderful letters. When they came in my table was not large enough so I piled the letters in separate piles on the floor and would take one from each pile until all were finished. But I will read them all again as there was so much news and I wanted to see what each one had to say.

Mother, excuse me calling this short but I want to write a few more notes to-night.

Love to Sister, Dad, the Boys and all friends Your happy son
